

SANDFORD AWARD

Caroline Marcus

Caroline is Director of Caroline Marcus Associates, a consultancy specialising in museum learning and engagement. She is Lecturer (Teaching) for the MA: Museums & Galleries in Education, UCL Institute of Education. Former experience includes head of learning, the Jewish Museum, London, lecturer and curator at The National Gallery and programme and strategic director, Kids in Museums. She is chair of Group for Education in Museums, supporting sector colleagues to connect and learn together. She is a trustee at the National Motor Museum, Beaulieu. She accredits a wide range of sites for best practice in learning as a Sandford Award judge and supports arts organisations in an advisory capacity.