

SANDFORD AWARD

Jean MacIntyre

Jean has worked in the heritage education sector for 30 years. She has been a Director of the Heritage Education Trust and a Sandford judge for 12 years. Jean began her career as a Toy library manager for the NHS and has also worked as a primary teacher, an Education Welfare Officer, an Education Coordinator for the Design Council of Great Britain, a Principal lecturer in Heritage Studies, freelance advisor to heritage sites on heritage education, committee member for Heritage Lottery Funding East Midlands, and Director of the Open Palace Programmes offering training for emergent heritage professionals. Jean has an M.A. in Design History from the V&A Museum and the Royal College of Art and is particularly interested in innovative art and design education in museums and galleries.