

SANDFORD AWARD

Karl Harris

Karl has been an assessor for the Sandford Award since 2015. His professional training is in Primary Education and he was Headteacher of an inner city school in Manchester before taking up a position with a Local Education Authority Inspection and Advisory Service. After a period of time spent living off-grid in rural Ireland he returned to the UK and became a curriculum advisor for the Sure Start programme. It was during this post that he started working with various Heritage Education sites and is now a freelance consultant to the sector. His area of professional specialism is Early Years and Family Learning whilst his personal interests include Egyptology, Archaeology, History of Art, and Ceramics.
