

SANDFORD AWARD

Lorraine Heyes

Lorraine lives in Lincoln and has worked in heritage interpretation, tourism development and community projects in Yorkshire, Nottinghamshire and Lincolnshire both in the public sector and as a freelancer. She has an MA in Heritage Management and Education. Lorraine worked on the NLHF funded Sandford Cascade Project which provided training based on the Sandford Award criteria and visits to Sandford Award-winning sites for participating museum education staff and volunteers.